Women Block Bulldozer Path

The Knott County landowners strip mine battle took on a new light yesterday as 25 people from the Honey Gap section of Clear Creek halted a stripping operation when women sat down in the path of large bulldozers.

Four of the men were armed with rifles and revolvers but no shooting was reported.

Two men were arrested by the Knott County Sheriff's Department. Lodged in Knott County Jail at Hindman and charged with Breach of Peace were Sam Hollifield and a man who refused to give his name to authorities.

Kentucky State Police Troopers from Hazard and Pikeville were there at the request of Knott County Sheriff Bud Hylton.

A restraining order was issued last week against seven men who stopped operation of the company last Wednesday.

The order directs, in part, that you and all persons working through, by under or on behalf of you are guilty of violating the order.

Perry Circuit Judge Don A. Ward has called for a hearing tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. in Hindman for the following people to show cause why they should not be held in contempt of court for violating the order.

Sam Hollifield, Mrs. Sam Hollifield, Frank Fugate, Paul

Ashley, Mrs. Morris Shepherd, Nathan Combs, Mrs. Cordis Smith, and Alex Begley.

A check with officials the morning revealed that the two arrested men were still in jail and that all is peaceful at Honey Gap.

A spokesman for the mining company, Caperton Coal Company, said the company going to mine coal on the land.

Buckhorn Group Meets Tonight

All interested persons are urged to attend.

Jaycees Ask For Names Of Soldiers

The Hazard Jaycees are asking all residents of Perry County to remember the men we have in Viet Nam during the Christmas Season. Anyone who has a son or relative in Viet Nam is asked to send his name to the Hazard Jaycees, Box 666, Hazard, Kentucky. The Jaycees will send their personal greetings to the men in Viet Nam.

A list of the men will be printed in the Hazard Herald and all citizens of Hazard and Perry County are urged to send cards or small gifts to the men.

The Jaycees hope that other Civic Groups and Church groups will hold special services during the Christmas Season to remember the men who are fighting and dying to preserve those freedoms we all hold so dear. It is especially during this time of year that the men from Perry County would love to be remembered by their fellow citizens.

Any group who wishes to send contributions or small Christmas gifts to the men in Viet Nam should do so as soon as the list of men in Viet Nam is published in the Hazard Herald. Wendell Combs and Harold Hudson, project co-chairmen, humbly request your addresses of relatives or friends who are now stationed in Viet Nam.

Be sure to send the complete military address to P. O. Box 666, Hazard, Ky. The Jaycees cannot accomplish this project without everyone's cooperation.

A resolution passed by the Kentucky Jaycees is printed on Page 2 of today's Herald.

The Cause Of It All

The cut through the mountain at Honey Gap in Clear Creek is the center point of the strip mine flare up. The stripping company, Caperton Coal Company has been halted twice in its bid to mine coal on the land by angry landowners.

Development Council Meets In Hindman

The Upper Kentucky River Area Development Council held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday morning at the Hindman Settlement School when the group considered the articles of incorporation which were written up by four of the members last week.

According to President George Wootton, some of the members would better themselves if they would let some of the county the incorporation papers be drawn up in Hazard and with the help of Robert Morgan, Floyd Hall, Larry Gaudin and Wootton.

Some thirty persons attended the day-long meeting which was highlighted by a heated discussion over articles of the proposed laws of the organization.

Section 6 of article two which is entitled Board of Directors states that two board members present from each county shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of any meeting of the Board.

Tom Gask of The Mountain Eagle newspaper in Whitesburg contends that the trouble with the UKRADC is that the real people of the county areas can not attend the meetings because the meetings are held during working hours instead of at night.

He also criticized the group for not having representatives from the city government of Whitesburg in the group.

Gask commented that the organization would better itself if they would let some of the county the incorporation papers be drawn up in Hazard and with the help of Robert Morgan, Floyd Hall, Larry Gaudin and Wootton.

NYC Program May Be Extended Says Director

The local Neighborhood Youth Corps program may receive approval of a six-months' extension program in the near future according to NYC Director W. P. Combs.

Combs said this morning that James Greenwald of the U. S. Department of Labor, told him in a telephone conversation earlier this week that he thought the extension would be granted without any trouble and that the local program would probably receive an increase in quota, also.

"At the present time, 200 youths are employed by the Neighborhood Youth Corps. A request was made for 250 positions when the application was submitted for the new program according to Combs.

"Mr. Greenwald is due here this week," said Combs. "and he may have direct results then."

If the new program is approved all the present NYC participants will be required to apply for the program again said Combs.

Combs also stressed that anyone not doing satisfactory work at his present job will not be rehired under the extended program.

The five-member Perry County Advisory Committee will evaluate the present employees between now and January 12, 1966. At that time, recommendations will be made on the work.

According to the October report, 27 youngsters worked a total of 30,619 1/2 hours under the NYC program.

The monthly wages totaled $38,274.41 in October.

Two of the NYC youths are now being trained as x-ray technicians in Hazard according to Dr. Lyndon Combs, head of the

Cornett Hill Action Group Writes L.B.J.

The Cornett Hill Community Action Committee has sent a letter to the President of the United States asking for help in what the letter said was "too much pressure being exerted against us causing us to fail in our effort to eliminate poverty."

The letter further states that the C.H.C.A.C. had it called to their attention that the Mayors of large cities are trying to deny the people in poverty any participation in policy-planning positions in community action programs.

The pressure being applied is reportedly from power structures or the controlling agencies in the War on Poverty.

"The members of the Cornett Hill Action Committee receive very little assistance from the power structure who control and dictate to the various department heads and virtually control the administration of all programs," the letter went on to say.

The letter was signed by Troy Lewis, president and Ollie Stout, secretary of the C.H.C.A.C.

Vietnamese Group Tours

A three member group of observers from Saigon, South Vietnam, is touring Eastern Kentucky this week through a program being sponsored by the Agency for International Development, a branch of the U. S. State Department.

The team is headed by Dr. Nguyen Van Hon, director of the second health section of the ministry of education of South Vietnam.

Dr. Mary Pauline Fox, director of Leslie County's OEO public health project, along with Dr. Lyndon Combs, head of the Accompanying Dr. Hon are Mrs. Pham Thi Lang, a dentist and another doctor, Mrs. Nguyen Thi Vinh.

Eastern Kentucky Area

The group is touring schools and health centers throughout the county while visiting the cafeterias at the Cornett Hill School and the R. W. Combs Elementary at Happy.

They plan to spend another week in Eastern Kentucky before visiting other parts of the United States. Kentucky is the only Appalachian state that the group will visit according to officials.

Since two of the Vietnamese visitors can't speak any English, an interpreter, Mr. Rene Delecan, is making the tour with them. One of the group has acquired some English grammar and can speak the language to a small degree.

Delecan, a native of France, has been a United States citizen for the past ten years.

The Herald plans to publish a feature story next week on Vietnamese's visit along with their personal opinions of Eastern Kentucky.

ASK ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: A friend of mine had her appendix and gall bladder removed recently. Hortense has been driving everyone up the wall with the gory details of her operation.

Don't you feel it is tasteless to discuss one's innards at the dinner table? Hortense started to describe how much blood she has lost just as the maid brought in the beet borscht. I couldn't look at it.

When she exhausted the details of her own operation she started in on the woman across the hall who had had an abdominal tumor removed. Just as Hortense said, "It was the size of a watermelon," the dessert appeared. You guessed it. I didn't touch mine.

Please publish this letter. Maybe she'll take the hint. — NOT HUNGRY, THANK YOU

Dear Not Hungry: Here's the letter, but don't expect miracles. Anyone as insensitive as Hortense would not be fazed by a hint. You'll have to TELL her. And if I were you, I would.

Dear Ann Landers: Will you please say something in the column about girls who are reluctant to break off their engagement for fear of what people might say?

Several weeks ago my favorite niece announced her engagement to an attractive young man. It looked like an ideal match. Yesterday my niece sobbed out her story. She allowed herself to be talked into the engagement by her socially ambitious mother (The young man went to the right schools, belonged to the right clubs, and his parents are Philadelphia Main Line).

"Mother has always been more concerned with how my engagement announcement would look on the society pages than about my future happiness," is the way my niece put it.

She says her fiancé is a nice person but she does not love him. She is afraid to break the engagement because people will think she's a kook. I hope you can make a dent. I can't. — TRIED AND FAILED

Dear Tried: Tell your niece it's a lot less kooky to break an engagement than to marry a man she doesn't love just because she's afraid of what people might say. Furthermore, if your niece knew how little people cared she'd be shocked. Her real friends will be happy she avoided a very serious mistake. As for the others, why bother about them?

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a man who took up a woman's time for twelve years, begged her to marry him and then, when she finally said yes, got so sick he had to take pills and he down on the sofa?

I am not a young girl any more, Ann. This whole thing has got me so upset I'm half sick myself. Since it happened he has said some pretty mean things. Now he tells me that the reason he has stomach trouble is because my cooking is lousy. (He never complained about my cooking when he was packing in the food here seven evenings a week.)

Is this man crazy or what? Should I continue to go with him now that I know he never really wanted to marry me? I must confess we are accustomed to each other and I'm afraid we'd be lost without one another. — VEXED

Dear Vexed: If you can forgive the dirty cracks about your cooking, continue to go with him for companionship.

Just because a man begs a woman to marry him doesn't mean he wants her to accept. Sometimes it only means he is asking what he considers a "safe" question.

If you have trouble getting along with your parents . . . if you can't get them to let you live your own life, send for Ann Landers booklet "Bugged by Parents? How to Get More Freedom." Send 50c in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

SIDE LITES

By Arlis Fields

Having a big game with an area rival is good for a team's morale but having to face two teams back to back with unblemished records can give a coach fits.

Albert Combs is the mentor who may have a few restless nights until after next Tuesday night, his M. C. Napier Navajos face two early season surprises in the 14th region between now and then.

Tomorrow night the Redskins will travel to Breathitt County to take on the, so far, unbeaten Jackson Tigers of J. B. Goff. Jackson posted its 6th win in a row Tuesday night and will give the Navajos all they want in the Lees College Gym battle. Jackson has been led so far by two sharpshooters in Glenn Leverage and Jim Turner.

Leverage has averaged over 20 points per contest this season.

The second surprise team Combs has to worry is the Dilce Combs Panthers.

Dilce is 3-0 on the year and is a slight choice over Leatherwood to take the honors in this weekend's L.I.T. and come in next Tuesday night's affair with a 5-0 mark.

Napier could use these two victories to put them higher in the upcoming Breathitt County Invitational Tourney which has Breathitt County, Clark County, and Highland as well as M.C.N.

New Bond Film To Open Here

Another year, another exciting James Bond thriller "Goldfinger", this current Agent 007's adventure, opens Sunday at the Family Theatre through United Artists release, with Sean Connery again starring as the indestructible detective. As usual, he is beset by beautiful women and ugly villains.

The third and most extravagant epic of this popular series, "Goldfinger" in Technicolor, co-stars Honor Blackman as Pussy Galore and Gert Frobe as Goldfinger, a millionaire obsessed by gold and determined to rob the daddy of all gold reserves: Fort Knox!

In the process, he kills a girl who befriends Bond by brushing gold paint on her body, thus closing the pores and suffocating her. Then he attempts to end Bond's life with a laser beam, a ray of light that can cut through steel!

Richard Maibaum and Paul Dehn wrote the screenplay, which was directed by Guy Hamilton.

Concrete VS. Blacktop

Eastern Kentucky's current highway construction boom is not the first one in the state. In the 1920's the province of new roads built the mountains with the rest of the world except an entire section and when that section was at last built, the road was there that one of our best roads had been there.

It is hard for us today to know the difference between the new roads and the old roads. We are so used to the new roads that we don't even know the difference between the old roads and the new roads.

There are three main types of roads. One is the old road, one is the new road, and one is the road that is being built. The old road is the one that has been built for a long time. The new road is the one that has been built recently. The road that is being built is the one that is being built now.

The new roads are built with concrete. The old roads are built with blacktop. The road that is being built is built with concrete. The new roads are built with concrete. The old roads are built with blacktop. The road that is being built is built with concrete.

Concrete is a better material than blacktop. It is stronger and it lasts longer. Blacktop is a better material than concrete. It is cheaper and it is easier to maintain. Concrete is a better material than blacktop. It is stronger and it lasts longer.

The Road Report . . . BY ARRA

You PAY THE BILL!

Clearing away the tons of bottles, paper, cans and assorted litter that is thrown on highways costs taxpayers more than $100 million a year. Between 1,500 and 1,000 Americans are killed and nearly 100,000 seriously injured each year in litter-caused accidents.

With the closing of the squirrel season, the first of the many fine hunts that squirrels do come to us many of you old time hunters. So boys you will have another chance. The first of the many fine hunts that squirrels do come to us many of you old time hunters.

Of hand I will try to mention some of the boys that did get yours at Fort Knox. Dr. Williams, Gene Fields, Earl Camp, and others. Of hand I will try to mention some of the boys that did get yours at Fort Knox.

NOT TOO OLD

To appreciate their flowers and garden, Mary and Jim Napier up Maceys Creek way, they stated they were tired to see the boys this year because they had so many very young boys. Mary is 81 and Jim 86, and very young for their stated age.

SPEAKING OF AGE

Let me suggest that soon after your year will have over taken many of you, have you checked with your SOCIAL SECURITY ratings recently? Let me suggest that you do this at an early date. Don't wait until the deadline is up on your age, prepare now well in advance for what your retirement requirements are why not visit your local Social Security office today. The people there will give all the data needed to complete your plans. Don't rush into it blindly, be well informed to what you can expect. The employees at the Social Security office are rendering this service for you. Let me suggest that you take advantage of this service to know where you stand. These people are willing to offer the advice you will need it will be correct and a lot of help. So check with them now.

A RESTLESS

World has befallen over many of you since the Election one I hear of is none other than MA COMBS. She was talking with Burley Harris after the election and wanted to know what they were going to do. Burley suggested that she should go hunting and fishing. Now Mr. Combs has a lifetime hunting and fishing license, so we are expecting some great feats from Mr. Combs' adventures from now on. Let me suggest that hunting and fishing fever never dies. After the votes are counted, I won't dare suggest your age as others have had the nerve to do. It's your luck to you MA COMBS along time before head round these parts.

I CAN'T HELP

Mention the flags that are all over town on this Nov. 11th many I have heard this date, whose birthday is this. I told some that it was near mine as I only missed it a very few hours as I was born on the 12th. I think that the Lions Club should be commended on this fine program that they have set up to display the flags on important holidays. It is a remembrance of so many. Let's not forget our freedom so easily after our boys have been killed during all conflicts. Life is short as it is, who our boys have to venture into jungles and other by ways, folks to me it is something to think of. Yes so many miles away from loved ones. Let's all hope and pray that the time will come when we can all see our boys and love them again.

to the Treasurer's office; Asst. Treasurer Kearney Cole to move up to the top spot to succeed Emerson (Doc) Beauchamp; House members William R. Jordan of Jenkins; James E. Murphy of Newport and Paul E. Young of Allensville. All are seasoned House members.

Young could run for Agriculture Commissioner as well as Tom Harris who tried last time with Chandler. Deputy Commissioner Mancel Vinson may be a candidate.

Other young possibilities are Commerce Commissioner Catherine Peden, John Swinford of Christiana, Ray Corcoran, for Supt. of Public Instruction to contest Wendell Butler who may want to swan his key to the Agriculture Department for that of the education department, and the old stalwarts like Henry Carter, Beauchamp, and some others who are reluctant to lay down their positions of top dogs in Democratic politics. It can be real interesting.

1935

Work of improving the Walkertown road, beginning near the Y.M.C.A. and running to the plant of the Blue Grass Milk Company, is to start within ten days.

This street is to be thirty feet wide, with a concrete pavement on the side opposite the river. Retaining walls are to be built for the property owners along the street. These will be uniform. A grass plot three feet wide is to be between the street and the sidewalk. Extension of the improvement from the milk plant to the Walkertown bridge is to be taken up by the commission after January 1.

Another step toward another street improvement was completed yesterday, when the city received deeds for the right of way on East Main street from Maple street to the intersection of High Street.

1945

Complete returns from the ten city precincts of Hazard definitely returned Mayor J. J. Moran to office for another term. Returns with Mayor Moran was Police Judge Ralph Peters, who led his opponent Dewey Combs by over 400 votes.

Moran edged out opponent M. K. Eblen 1107 votes to 814. Commissioners elected were Bill Sizemore, 990 votes, Frank Miller, 980, Elmer Roth, 968 and Ross Blomfield, 942.

A mine fire at the Number 7 mine of the Knott Coal Corporation, Anco, Ky., was fought safely and successfully by the splendid cooperation of the management and the men.

AUTHOR'S NOTE:

Concerning today's answers, perfect or near perfect scores have been recorded for: Edith Combs, Mrs. Mary Jane, Daniel George H. Kawaja, Elbert "Rip" Stevens and Roy and Mrs. John T. Stewart.

1. Uriah "Rip" Stevens writes that it was "Ripish" and then adds that he can't find anywhere in the Bible where it says that Uriah was a captain. And in a way I am afraid Rip is correct as far as exact language is concerned. However, the dictionary gives several definitions of "captain" and one of them says "a man skilled in war or military affairs, a chief, a leader especially in the military." In II Samuel 11:7 we see in the KJV, RSV, and many other translations that King David asked Uriah, "how doest thou, how the people do, and how the war prospereth?" On that order. Since David was at the front directing the war effort it is certainly implied that Uriah had to be a high ranking military man in order to be in a position to know these things. Uriah is also mentioned in I Chronicles 11:41 as one of a very select group of mighty men of the armies.

2. Hittite — Although he had no doubt became an adopted Israelite, his recorded conversation and deeds bear this out. The Hittite Empire had been thought by many historians to either have been fictitious or of little importance. Although FORTY PASSAGES in the Bible mention the Hittites! In just the last century and into this century, archaeological evidence has shown conclusively that this was a great, ancient empire, and you can read a lot about it in any modern encyclopedia. The Scriptures had been carrying this evidence for at least twenty-five hundred years!!

3. Solomon

4. King Hiram of Tyre

5. Jerusalem

6. Adam fell

7. We each "fell". In Romans 3:23 we read, "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Also, as a race we had fallen when the man that God revealed Himself to, known in the Bible as the "First Adam", failed the test. (Now the Bible also speaks of Christ as the "Second Adam", even though there were many, many men in between.)

8. Jesus Christ. He provided for our OPPORTUNITY to be reconciled with God.

9. Yes, Jesus gave up EVERYTHING for you and me.

10. Yes. We cannot comprehend how He could have been God and also man—but He was! The evidence is overwhelming for anyone who humbly seeks the Truth.

WITH DOUBLE-STRONG CONSTRUCTION

Chevy pickups for '66 are built strong to stand up to tough jobs. Cabs, for example, have double-wall roof construction, a rigid double-wall cowl and husky framing around door openings. Lower side panels of Fleetside models are also double-walled. Chassis, too, is designed for extra strength. You can get a 6 1/2-, 8-, or 9-ft. body and a big new 250-cu.-in. Six. Or specify a rugged 327-cu.-in. V8. Get a double-strong pickup that's a glutton for work!

This is the most expensively made Bourbon in Kentucky... and probably in the world.

(And this is true of both Fitzgeralds, Bonded and 86.3 proof Prime Straight)

How can we say this? Years back, leading Kentucky distillers were asked to report their costs to our State. Final figures revealed our Fitzgerald Bourbon to be the most expensively made — by a Bluegrass mile.

Year after year, the story has never changed. (Probably because in 116 years we've never changed, sticking to the painstaking demands of our original Sour Mash recipe.)

You'll find Old Fitz priced among premium Bourbons — but not way above them. Have just one taste. Just a taste is all we ask... it's all we've ever needed.
